

Press Release

An inaugural ceremony of Nepal Mela (Fair) has been held today at Xihulu Square, Beijing Lu, Guangzhou. All together 250 people including senior government officials from China, Consul General and their representatives from different Consulates in Guangzhou, representatives from different Chambers of Commerce and Tourism industry were present in the program. Addressing the opening ceremony, Consul General of Nepal in Guangzhou, Mr. Ravi Bhattarai said that the Nepal Mela has been organized to introduce Nepal's potential products in Chinese market, familiarize Nepali and Chinese business personalities with each other and enhance further the economic, political and cultural relations at public and governmental level. Deputy District Director General of People's Government of Yuxieu District, Ms. Guo Huan also spoke in the program wishing the success of the Nepal Mela. Mr. Yue Yang, Director of Department of Commerce of Guangdong province briefed about the current trade relation between Nepal and Guangzhou and emphasized further cooperation to increase the trade relation.

The fair will be continued till 2018 June 14. Fourteen Exhibitors from Nepal has participated in the Fair. Nepali pashmina, jewelry, paper products, pickles, coffee, tea, herbs, natural fiber products and other different kind of Nepali handicraft products are being exhibited in the fair. There are two booth for the cuisines with Nepali tastes.

Guangzhou, 2018 June 11

